Sends her love
Henry Ford and

My dear Joe

What a joy it was to hear from home of your wire. The copy was some time in reaching me here where I am taking a little holiday. Things have been rather fierce at the works + no holiday till now so I was glad of a little spell up here. I could not get dear mother persuaded to come as she does not feel in good shape for motoring just now. Mrs Dukes, Carol's help, remembers you as the gentleman who turned head over heels on the lawn.

It seems like a lifetime old boy since we saw you + heard of you + no words could express what a joyous surprise it was to hear of you. Can't say very much in a letter but am wondering what your present status is + shall make enquiries of your associates when I get home on probably Tuesday next.
The time of year recalls ^{last} our trip together just over a year ago + how delightful it would be if it could be repeated.
Dearest love my dear Chips + you have only to say if there is anything I can do. Your affectionate Father. (A.G. Enock)
